Experience that Counts

Len has been entertaining and astounding audiences with his magical and comedic skills for over 20 years.

He was also awarded first place in the Senior Division at Abbott's National Magic Get-together in Colon, Michigan. Abbott's Magic Get-together is an annual event that brings the best magicians in the world together for seminars, lectures and contests.

A graduate of the Chavez School of Magic, Len has earned the respect of audiences and peers alike.

He has been featured on regional television and in various publications, including the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel.

Programs Tailored for You

Len's highly professional presentations can miraculously transform humdrum happenings into memorable events.

His talents as a:

- close-up magician,
- comedy entertainer and
- stage performer

enable him to tailor his program to meet your needs and setting.

And, his magical skills include turning audience volunteers into on-stage celebrities...making them part of your event's success.

Whether performing table-side, demonstrating slight of hand from the speaker's podium, or producing major illusions from center stage, Len's skill and artistry are admired by all. His vast assortment of illusions enable him to perform for your group again and again.
